ABOUT THE ARTIST

Mark grew up in Milwaukee but his heart was always in the country. So, he decided to go into conservation as a career. He graduated from UW Stevens Point with a degree in Wildlife Management. He worked part time for two years with the DNR and is currently working full time in Ripon, WI.

Mark practices wildlife management on his land near Hixton, WI; Zim, MN; and Sioux Narrows Ontario Canada. Mark also paints as a hobby and loves hunting, fishing and camping.

Mark’s artistic accomplishments include several WWF Artist of the Year Awards:

2001 with “Golden Pond”

2004 with “Farmland Gathering”

2005 with “Marshland Melodies”

2007 with “January Stroll”

Mark has also been honored with the title “Northwoodsman of the Year 2003”, after competing in events and demonstrating how he paints on shed antlers.

Mark found his niche as a wildlife artist when he started painting on shed moose and caribou antlers. It is very fulfilling to Mark to search for and find a special antler, visualize what might go on it and then use his much appreciated God given talent to create a unique piece of art that depicts nature’s splendor, captures a special memory or creates a family heirloom. “I feel very blessed and like to share that with others.”
